Issued Bank Certificates!

Only some fifteen or twenty thousand dollars worth of these certificated will be issued, and any one holding them can, at any time, make a deposit, and, in lieu, receive from Mr. James Interest, drawing certificates of deposit. This is an admirable arrangement all around.

SHOT TO DEATH.

An Awful Tragedy.

DALTON, GA., September 29, 1873.

Editors Constitution: A terrible affair happened here last night at about 11 o'clock. A colored man, by name Hilliard Quinn, (a barber having a shop in the National Hotel), was deliberately shot by a man named Zack Calaway, from Murray county. Quinn was on his way home from church, when Calaway rode up to him on horseback, and asked him who he was, and without any known provocation shot him through the breast. The wound proved mortal. The poor fellow died this afternoon about three o'clock. Before his death Judge McCutchin took his dying declaration—which was that Calaway shot him and that he knew of no reason for his doing so.

The colored boy, I am informed, has a good character, and commanded the respect of everybody—being sober and industrious.

A warrant is in the hands of an officer for the arrest of Calaway. His whereabouts is not known, though it is believed he will soon be in the hands of officers.

The national Hotel is crowded, but they soon manage to give me a first class room. W.

Summary of State News.

RAINBRIDGE.

A horse thief, named Cook stole Deputy Sheriff Burke's mule last week.——The Bainbridge Academy came near being filled over by the storm last Friday.——The Oak City Hook and Ladder Company serenaded their newly-married Foreman, Mr. W. M. Wright last Thursday night, and presented his wife with a beautiful silver fruit stand.——Friday's storm was very severe at Bainbridge. The Episcopal church and several shops were blown down or unroofed. In the country, the cotton suffered a great deal, and a number of gin houses and fences were wrecked. —Democrat.

BLAKELY.

Cotton is now coming to town in good quantities, and we hope may have the effect of speedily seeing the refunding of our money market.——Some improvements are going on in Blakely in spite of the railroad. Mr. Peter Howard is erecting a new house, and will have it completed in a few days.——Tying the bob dog's tails is coming into fashion again. One dog so circumstanced traveled down the street the other day at a rate that would have astonished a runaway.——Mr. Arthur Sheffield, well known in this and Miller counties, died at the residence of Mr. W. J. Bush, of Miller county, on Last Thursday.—News.

CONYERS.

No suspension of banks in Conyers yet. Very little panic and still less money.——Most of the Conyers merchants are purchasing cotton to the amount of liens they hold on the planters.——The Primitive Baptists are holding a protracted meeting at Bethel Church, in this county.—Examiner.

AMERICUS.

Last week an American beau, being a young gentleman of gorgeous appearance and inquiring mind, dropped into a barber shop to have his hair done up. The barber was out and his angel was waiting for him. The young gentleman picked up the nearest bottle and emptied its contents amidst his flowing locks. Scarcely, however, had it touched the flowing locks aforesaid before the young gentleman became violently agitated. He turned the bottle round, read the same on the label, and shouting fourth in accents of the intensest misery, "Dead shot for bed-bugs," the wretched young man fainted. It is needless to say he did not call upon his sweetheart that afternoon. He carried his hair home in his coat tail pocket, and by dint of sand papering, pouticing, and otherwise reversing his head, has some slight hope of getting a new crop by next spring.

CAMILLA.

Hopeful Church, a Baptist house of worship near Camilla was blown down on Friday last.—Cotton is coming in but slowly, owing perhaps to the roads being so much blocked by fallen timber.——On Tuesday the 9th instant, Mr. A. M. O. Culpepper was shot, cut and mortally wounded by Mr. W. A. Davis, two highly respected citizens of this county. The affray occurred in the afternoon, and originated on account of Mr. Davis' hogs breaking into Mr. Culpepper's fields. Davis has left the country.——During Friday's storm a great many shade trees in Camilla were blown down, and Mr. J. S. Montgomery had his house reversed.—Enterprise.

THOMASVILLE.

A large agricultural meeting is called for the 9th of October.——The Mercer's Fire Company have entered into an agreement with the City Council, by which one of their number are to stand guard from 10 o'clock at night until daylight every night. The Company receive $50 a month for this service.——The cotton sales in Thomas promises to be a short one. The ginning is coming with a perfect rush, and planters are taking advantage of the fine weather, and getting in very rapidly.——Miss Jennie Cochran, daughter of the late Henry Cochran, of Thomas county, died on Thursday at the residence of Dr. C. B. Stegall, in Somerville, after an illness of only two or three days.—Times.

AUGUSTA.

On Friday evening, October 10th, Bishop Gross will lecture at the Masonic Hall, for the benefit of the Young Men's Society of Augusta.——The regular weekly meeting of Methesela Lodge, I. O. O. F., on Friday night, was of exceeding interest. The attendance was unusually large. Impressive and eloquent addresses were made by Rev. Oliver, of Atlanta, State Lecturer Atkinson, and Col. Hickman,—Constitutionalist.

SAVANNAH.

Friday night, Quartermaster White of the Oglethorpe Light Infantry, turned over the clothing of the Oglethorpes to the Savannah Cadets for their use until they leave for the Macon Fair, and also the guns with which the Cadets will use in their coming parades. Thomas C. Wilson, a notorious colored thief, and a former politician, was arrested and locked in jail on Friday for stealing a quantity of clothes, watches, jewelry, etc., from a colored man, Dick Holmes, a well known negro barber. Another visitor at the Mayor's Court, attempted to cash a negro named Sterling Friday. Sterling drew up a razor and gave Holmes several horrid cuts across the face, one of them cutting completely through the left eye ball.——Another experiment of the same sort came very nearly being burnt up Friday.—Advertiser and Republican.

ATHENS.

Recently some young men in Hart county were fox hunting, and during the hunt they found and killed two rattlesnakes in a hollow log.——Robert Rucker, an old citizen of Elbert county, died on Friday.——On Tuesday afternoon Mr. David Waters and Louisa Porterfield were married in this city, the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Gilbert.——John Sparks accidently shot himself in the left hand last Saturday morning. The wound is serious.—Northeast Georgian.

SUNDAY'S NEWS.

THE FINANCIAL FLUTTER.

GRANT WRITES A LETTER—THE BANKS MUST DO SOMETHING NOW—LARGE GOVERNMENT INTEREST TO BE PAID—MONEY GONE TO CHARLESTON.

WASHINGTON, September 29.—The following letter was written to-day.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, September 29, 1873.

Hon. Mayor, H. B. Claflin and Charles L. Anderson:

GENTLEMEN—In response to the news you have communicated to me touching the pressure and stringency in the money market of the country and the necessary steps to restore healthy and legitimate trade and commerce, I have the honor to communicate to you that the government is desirous of doing all in its power to relieve the present unsettled condition of business affairs which is fast bringing back the immense resources of the country, now awaiting transportation to the seaboard and a market. Confidence on the part of the people is the first thing needed to believe this condition and to avert the threatened destruction of business, with its accompanying disasters to all classes of the people. To re-establish this feeling, the government is willing to take all legal measures in its command, and will aid, without the active co-operation of the banks and moneyed corporations of the country. With the fourteen millions of dollars already paid out in the purchase of the government indebtedness, and the withdrawal of their large deposits from the treasury, the banks are now strong enough to adopt a liberal policy, as their part, and by a generous system of discounts to sustain the business interests of the country. Should such a course be pursued the forty-four millions of reserve will be considered as money in the treasury to meet the demands of the public necessities as the circumstances of the country may require. Close attention will be given to the course pursued by those who have the means at their command of rendering all the aid necessary to restore trade to its proper channels and condition. With a view of strengthening the hands of those who carry out the measures above indicated orders have already been issued for the prepayment of the interest accruing in November.

U. S. GRANT.

U. S. coupons maturing November first will be paid on and after Monday, September 29, upon a rebate of interest at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum. The banks met a meeting to-night and confirmed the action of last night.

A committee of six were appointed who will certify to the checks of each.

The banks holding aloof are the Bank of Washington, Bank of the Republic and the Farmers and Mechanics.

Georgetown & Riggs, members of the combination, are confident that the above banks will be forced into a compromise before Monday night.

NEW YORK, September 28.—The amount of money which will be brought into market by the action of the Secretary of the Treasury, in paying interest on coupon bonds, is estimated at $10,000,000, but as most of these bonds are held in Europe, the relief from them will not be felt for some time. The amount which will result from the payment of interest on registered bonds will be about $4,000,000. Registered bonds are nearly all held in this country.

The President of the First National Bank here urges the immediate resumption of specie payment on the ground that such action will immediately add $80,000,000 of positive relief to the currency of the country.

PHILADELPHIA, September 28.—The bank presidents and stock brokers say they will do nothing to cause the decline of securities at the Stock Board. The bondholders are caring for themselves. Meanwhile the products of the country are not at the depots.

CHARLESTON, September 29.—A better feeling prevailed at the close of business on Saturday, the national banks having received a large amount of greenbacks on deposit. They paid out in checks. No suspensions have occurred beyond those announced on Friday.

DISEASE.

MEMPHIS, September 29.—Twenty-two yellow fever interments yesterday. Total for the week, 98, against 128 the week previous.

CAIRO, September 29.—Considerable uneasiness is manifested at the prevalence of what has hitherto been pronounced congestive billious fever, but which some physicians now pronounce yellow fever, modified by Northern climate. Only four fatal. The city is more unhealthy than for many years.

THE TURF.

NEW YORK, September 28.—At Prospect Park yesterday there were two races. First race one thousand dollars one mile heats. The first heat was won by Everett Ray; second heat Miss Miller, when a protest was ordered by gentleman connected with the course against too apparent jockeying of the driver and owner of the horse, Hopeful. The driver of the latter was then changed by the Judges and Hopeful won the race in the three test heats. Time: 2:26; 2:27, 2:25. Time for horse Hopeful—his owner and driver were ruled after the race off all the tracks recognized by the general association forever. Second race—one mile heats, $5,000, won by Camera. Time: 2:23, 2:21 2:23.

DROWNED.

CAIRO, September 28.—An unknown woman and two children, from Columbus, Kentucky, by the Mobile road, were drowned in attempting to jump aboard a departing steamer.

MARINE.

CHARLESTON, September 28.—Arrived—Charleston, Falcon, Lizzie, Evans, and Veto. Sailed Jessie, Elizabeth, Charles Monford, A. J. Bently, Mary Collins.

SAVANNAH, September 28.—Arrived—Annie Bingay.

SPAIN.

BOMBARDMENT OF ALICANTE.

MADRID, September 28.—General Ceballas and Minister Maisanave arrived at Alicante on Friday and were enthusiastically received. The efforts of foreign counsuls to prevent the bombardment of the city by insurgent guns failed. Admiral Yelverton declined to go beyond his instructions from London, which were to maintain absolutely a neutral position. All merchant shipping left port and anchored outside.

The British fleet moved in the harbor on the right, and the French on the left of the town, and eleven other foreign men-of-war including the Germans occupied the centre inside of these lines of rebel ironclads. Numancia and Mediezumez took up their positions and prepared to bombard the place. The German commander, at the last moment, offered to stop hostilities but the English and French commanders refused to join him. The bombardment was opened at five o'clock this, Saturday, morning, and five hundred projectiles, some filled with petroleum, were thrown into the city. Great damage was done and several large edifices are in ruins. A vigorous fire was returned from the forts and batteries on the shore with great effect, for at the end of seven hours, the rebel iron-clads shipped cables and withdrew in a damaged condition. Minister Maisonave telegraphed at noon to-day that the bombardment had ended, and declared it was a wanton outrage, which should be held up to the reprobation of Europe.

Men-of-war Victoria and Alamanza, recently released by the British, will be dispatched to the relief of Calicante.

Book Notice.

Miriam Monfort, By the Author of "The Household of Bouverie." Publishers—D. Appleton & Co., New York. For sale in Atlanta by J. W. Burke & Co., Whitehall street.

This is one of the most intensely interesting novels we have ever read. The attention is enchained almost painfully so, from the time the volume comes in our hands until it is finished. The portraiture of character is strong, the tone of the work is decidedly moral, and its perusal will do no one harm.

MY BIG WELL.

The Argument is Exhausted—To Arms!

Messrs. Editors Constitution: I have just risen from my bed two or three inches shorter than I was before the Messrs. Noble, of Rome, in their windings around Atlanta? It was a cold track, but I knew it by the size of the foot. And "behold!" I have flushed them; and now the father of the Nobles raises upon his wings of benevolence, and hovers over Atlanta, and by an ingenious presentation of the ghost of my big well, he makes a great effort to frighten our people. And after [illegible] he [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] down into his cavern and [illegible] and [illegible] sinks down into his cavern and cooks and [illegible] down into your pockets and come! Well if he did not say these words he must have thought them, judging from the noble way he went into the pockets of Rome. Brethen, perhaps, he loves Atlanta better than Rome. See his concluding remarks as follows: "My only object in visiting at all is that I have the welfare of Atlanta at heart." Now isn't that noble. Gentlemen, noble, all he has got to do is to obtain the charter. I have no objection, you know, to Atlanta to build her machinery for her, provided it can't be done here, and that you are moderate in your charges. I have seen your work, and know what you can do in this line. And you can also find water where it comes in great streams between the layers of granite, as at Rome, but you do not understand gathering it where it does not come naturally, as I have done with my well. I have refused to [illegible] twelve feet in diameter, forty-eight feet two inches deep, with one tunnel thirty feet, and another tunnel twenty feet long, that is all of it. Now, such a well in Atlanta would scarcely afford enough to make coffee for our visitors, and only success to Rome on account of the great flow of water between the sheets of granite. But when you come to Atlanta you say you would dig a deeper well. I would advise you to do so, and now let me tell you to make a sure thing of it. Dig your well one hundred feet, or over, in diameter, and from eighty to one hundred feet deep, according to the location, and I will show you how to keep it from caving without starting two hundred feet to get the big slope you speak of, and then I will insure your success, but on no other plan would I do so. At night, and other times, when the power pump is not at work, your crawfish holes would soon fill, and the water regaining its level, would pass on "the way of all the earth," whilst my big well would be gathering and holding it ready for the next day's operations.

Now, father Noble, as I stated at the heading, the argument is exhausted, let us cross swords, you have faith in your plan and I have faith in my plan, now let us put our faith up at auction to the lowest bidder and see which is the strongest.

I have proposed to the Water Board to direct the work free of charge, and to pay for the well if I fail. I will now make an additional proposition so as to give you a chance to try your faith, and allowing the Commissioners to take choice of my propositions.

I will purchase three acres of ground, in a suitable place for pure water, dig my well and wall it up all complete, and when the Water Board, City Council, and citizens generally, come up and say there is "enough for each, enough for all," enough for years to come, they may then have my well, including the three acres of ground for fifty thousand dollars, and if I fail it is my well and my ground, the city having paid nothing for it.

Now, father Noble, this is my first shot. If this strikes you in a vital part be still, and don't kick to make believe you are living. But on the other hand, if I fired too high load up and level your ordnance, and I will peck my flint and try again. Now don't let your friends in Atlanta whisper in the ears of the Commissioners, telling them what you can do and I cannot do. I have never said a word to any one of them on the subject. I want no skirmishing or dodging behind stumps in this fight, but come squarely on the battle ground that I have marked out for you and I am ready.

Respectfully,
E. D. THURMAN.

A CARD.

Not a Candidate.

Editors Constitution: I feel constrained by a sense of duty to seek the earliest opportunity for putting at rest the stupid rumor that I am to be the Herald's independent candidate for Mayor. I can't imagine how such a rumor could have gained existence, unless it arose from an editorial which appeared in the Herald Sunday morning, in which, after alluding to my speech last Saturday night at the City Hall, the following language is used, "and it is not impossible that H. F. Willingham's theatre card in the race for Mayor," and in connection with this language the hope is expressed by the editor that I will go into that business. Being unwilling that this rumor shall go any further, I hasten to state the following facts:

1. That I have not had any conversation on any subject with either of the editors of St. Clair Abrams paper since about the middle of October, 1867.

2. That if St. Clair Abrams is going to run an independent candidate for Mayor, I know nothing about it, and have no idea who it will be, unless it should be himself or A. D. Rockafellow.

3. But should Mr. St. Clair Abrams, or his man Rockafellow either become a candidate, I shall fail it my duty to oppose them, notwithstanding they both seem well indorsed by the Democracy.

In addition to the above stated facts, I desire to state further that I will not, under any circumstances, consent to be a candidate for Mayor, either as the nominee of my party or as an independent candidate. At the proper time our party will determine for itself, without any dictation from either Rockafellow or St. Clair Abrams, whether it is best to make a party nomination or support a "people's ticket."

In the meanwhile I would advise the Democracy to do with St. Clair Abrams as the Republicans have done with A. D. Rockafellow, (kick him out of the party), or put the party lash to him and whip him into line. All armies have their "stragglers," all parties their "sorgheads," and while the Republicans have had their Rockafellow, the Democracy have had their St. Clair Abrams. Rocky and St. Clair constitute a nice political pair, and it is difficult to think of one without thinking of the other, especially as it appears in yesterday morning's Herald that they are jointly going into the business of getting out dispatches. Respectfully, HENRY P. FARROW.

OUR SOLDIERS.—If some one of our Atlanta companies don't take the prize at the Macon Fair, they will certainly have the satisfaction of knowing that they didn't miss it very far. They all are working like beavers, and rapidly rendering themselves proficient soldiers. Last night the Zouaves spent an hour or so profitably, and we hope pleasantly in marching up and down the Depot building, while the Guards went through their exercises at that hall on Broad street.

Station House Report.

Upon inquiry at the Station House last night, we learned that seven city and one State arrest had been made during the day. The State arrest was of a negro named Bill Holsey. Bill came from Jonesboro here with some money which did not belong to him and was arrested upon a telegram. He will be sent back for trial upon the charge of larceny after a trust.

The other arrests were for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

SPLENDID EXERCISE.—One of our German friends took us by a pleasant sort of violence to the monthly meeting of the Turn Verein last night, and what we saw, this editor is too happy to talk about. He came back and sent another editor, who will doubtless explain. We congratulate the members upon the great progress made. The exercises upon the horizontal bar were admirable and the leaping capital. Many ladies were out, and refreshments flowed in a Cellestens stream.

THE ABBEVILLE MEDIUM.—Mr. Hemphill, one of the proprietors of this journal, is in our city canvassing for business. We unhesitatingly advise our merchants to pave the way for extensive trade in sections of South Carolina reached by the Air Line, and the plan is to advertise. It is not often that we advise our merchants to do this, one attempt to embarrass them in the matter. But we believe it to be the interest of Atlanta to patronize these South Carolina journals located in towns whose trade may be made ours.

THE ATLANTA TURN VEREIN.

The First Annual Festivity of the Order.

Last night our German friends of the Atlanta Turn Verein held their first annual celebration on Broad street. A large crowd was in attendance and a most enjoyable evening was passed.

The Turn Verein has a membership if 95 that is rapidly growing. We saw many familiar faces on the floor.

The gymnastic exercises were very fine. The dancing we kept up until a late hour, and was enjoyed vastly. Refreshments were there in profusion.

Many successions of their annual celebration to the Atlanta Turn Verein.

THE COURTS.

The Proceedings of the United States Courts—The Welch Case Still on Trial—Commencement of Fulton Superior Court—Judge McCutchen, of the Cherokee Circuit, Presiding—First Day's Proceedings.

Fulton Superior Court.

The Superior Court of Fulton county convened for its regular Fall term yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. By agreement His Honor Judge C. D. McCutchen, Judge of the Superior Courts of the Cherokee Circuit, has exchanged places temporarily with Judge Hopkins, and opened our Court yesterday morning. The arrangement we learn will last during the present week. Judge Hopkins in the meantime is holding Catoosa Superior Courts. Judge McCutchen is one of the ablest jurists in the State, and our Bar, from their yesterday's experience, are prepared to be much pleased with him.

The following gentlemen presented themselves and were sworn to serve on the grand jury during the present week: R C Mitchell Foreman; W F Walters, O A Thrower, O J Culberson, W T Meador, D H Alabrook, C W Holley, John Mayson, A B Davis, Phillip House, M M Daly, B S King, Henry Hirsch, J O Allen, B Cash, M Manley, J R Drake, W F Parkhurst, Frank Mills, Daniel Cagle, W E Sprewell.

Judge McCutchen delivered a very impressive and exhaustive charge to the grand jury, which, if paid strict attention to, will bring to grief all law breakers in this county, and that, too, at an early day.

After the usual panels of petit jurors had been formed, the Court proceeded regularly to business.

As had been announced through THE CONSTITUTION, the call of the dockets was commenced with the Appeal Docket. The following cases were called:

W. J. Newman vs. W. J. Houghton. Assumpsit. Order taken to make parties.

Messrs. N. J. Meador, W. R. Granthan and B. A. Haskell were fined $4) each for their default as jurors.

L. Timmons vs. E. E. Grenville. Assumpsit. In this case, Judge Hopkins had been of counsel. An order was taken, by consent, to try the cause before Colonel N. J. Hammond at a later day during the present term. J. L. Brown for plaintiff. L. E. Blockly contra.

Rosanna Haun-coff vs. Henry Wilson, principal, and John Gavan claimant, assumpsit, order granted to establish certain papers.

In the following cases judgment was taken for the plaintiff by default.

A. L. Read administrator of W. W. Kendrick vs. D. P. Hill. Judgment for $1,384 16 principal, with interest and costs.

The Howe Sewing Machine Company vs. L. N. Dimmick. Judgment for $104 principal, with interest and costs.

W. A. Lumsdell vs. George E. White, judgment for $197 13, with interest and costs.

W. L. Herring vs. J. C. Battle, judgment for $400, interest and costs.

Alexander Rives vs. R. J. Massey, administrator of E. M. Edwardy, assumpsit. In this case a verdict was obtained for the plaintiff for $663 50, principal, with interest and costs.

Besides the above a number of cases were called and entered, settled or were dismissed.

No announcement has been made with respect to the criminal docket. It will not, probably, be reached within the next three weeks.

The case of Ophia Stevens et al., vs. Thomas Farr, trustee, Henry Irby et al., bill for relief, &c., was called and its trial commenced. This case was brought to April term, 1867.

Hill & Candler, for plaintiffs. Erzird, Gartrell & Jackson, and Peeples & Howell, contra.

Pending its trial, the Superior Court was adjourned to half past eight o'clock this morning.

The Justice's Courts.

These tribunals were all very quiet yesterday, and furnish nothing of interest.

The United States Courts.

The Circuit and District Courts of the United States met yesterday morning at their usual hour, his Honor Judge Erskine presiding.

The trial of L. M. Welch & Co., vs. the Atlanta and Richmond Air-Line Railroad was resumed.

This is a suit brought by a contract or to render the Road liable for a violation of the contract. The damages sued for are $20,000. Upon the conclusion of the plaintiff's evidence yesterday, the defendant moved for a non-suit upon the ground that the testimony failed to connect the defendant with the case, and, that the plaintiff had failed to show that the liability could rest on them.

The argument of this motion occupied two hours, but it was finally overruled by the Court, and the defendants were required to open their case. This trial cannot possibly be concluded before some time to-day, if then. No other business was transacted, the Court being occupied with the Welch case all day.

At a late hour in the afternoon the Courts were adjourned to nine o'clock this morning.

The case set for trial to-day is, The United States vs. William J. Brown, 11 bbl distilling.

THE DICKENS PARTY.—We scarcely suppose that it is necessary for us to again inform our readers that to-night is the night for the Dickens party. From what we learn upon the street, there will be a crowd present such as it has rarely been the fortune of the Kimball House to entertain at any one time. A large number of Dickens' most noted characters will be present in person, and we may safely say, that in many instances, so far as natural good looks are concerned, will beat the originals all to pieces.

The sale of tickets has been large, not only in Atlanta, but in other places along the line of the several roads leading here. We recommend to all, married and single, to seize this occasion of witnessing a sight which they may never again have an opportunity of seeing, and which will a hundred fold repay them in good old fashioned fun for the small amount expended.

Meeting in the Fifth Ward.

There was a very large attendance of Democrats at the Club meeting of the Fifth Ward last night.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. Anthony Murphy, the object being stated.

On motion of Mr. G. W. Hall, a committee of five, consisting of Mr. G. W. Hall, Tandy C. Wilkinson, H. S. Townder, John Davis and John D. Wing was appointed to prepare business for the Club.

The committee having retired, Mr. John Goldsmith being called on, announced himself as a candidate for Alderman. So did Mr. Mote Simmons, Col. Hooper, Jesse Goss, J. N. Langston, Jesse Thrasher, Frank Rice, and others make some excellent talks.

The committee to prepare business made a report recommending J. M. Goss for President, and Henry Holmes, Secretary, who were duly elected.

The committee also reported an elaborate set of resolutions, indorsing the action of other clubs in appointing the 11th of October as the day for the nomination, and making provisions and regulations for conducting the same.

They also recommend the indorsement of the resolutions adopted by the first ward, which were offered by Mr. J. H. Smith.

The resolutions were adopted seriatim.

Remarks urging upon all good citizens to come out and make choice of candidates in the nomination were made by Mr. A. Murphy.

The following motion was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Club are hereby tendered to Anthony Murphy, Esq., for his efficient services as President of this Club during the year just closing.

The Club then adjourned.

A VOICE FROM TEXAS.

A Constitution Subscriber Tells About Crops and Things.

CUSHNA, September 16th, 1873.

Editors Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.:

GENS—As it may be of some interest to some of your readers to hear from the northeastern portion of the Lone Star State, I have concluded to give you a short history of the crops in this county. Cotton, as a general thing, is about half a crop and in a great many places nearly an entire failure, caused by late planting and planting over, nearly everybody had to plant over, more or less cotton and corn, from cold weather in the spring, and hail storms, etc. All through May, June and July it was very rainy, so that the farmer could not work his crop; consequently the grass took it and he had to turn out part, and that which he worked was very near half cut up when layed by. In August the boll worm made its appearance, and the likes of damage by boll worms never was known in this country before. Cotton that did fair for a bale per acre three weeks ago, will not make more than one-third of a bale. About ten days ago the caterpillar made their appearance and has very near stripped the cotton of its leaves. One of my neighbors that planted about the first of May will not make more than a bale to ten acres. He has in cotton about 300 acres.

I have heard from different portions of the State crops are very short—also in Arkansas and a portion of Louisiana, that I have heard from, corn is very scarce, caused by not being worked; not enough made to do the family. Oats in some portions where they were more favored with good rains, the yield was not very good, but oats very good. Potatoes and peas are scarce in consequence of a severe drouth on us now. Well, a few words about our country and people. We have good country, good water, good land, good freestone water, both wells and springs, plenty of branches, creeks and rivers. Our land, when fresh, will with anything like a good crop year, make a bale per acre when well cultivated, but that is extreme good crops. About two bales to three acres is an average crop for fresh land. We have good society, good schools, good churches, and good preaching, and the State will soon be Democratic. The most of the sickness in this country is chills and fever. We have good fruit and abundant of young orchards.

Freedmen are very lazy, and will not work much. We need a law to regulate labor in this country. Your obedient servant,

A. L. GRIFFIN.

The Good Templars.

Editors Constitution: The Chronicle and Sentinel, of yesterday, contains a card from our Georgia temperance friend, C. F. Crawford, of Milledgeville, in which an ill-concealed attempt to injure the great Order of Good Templars is patent to any ordinary observer. Says he:

"The G. W. C. Templar's annual report in yesterday's Constitutionalist charges that I and others voted for what was deemed the final settlement of the negro question, at the Rome session of the Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T., last year. I did not so vote, but had withdrawn from the Lodge, and left the city before that resolution was even introduced."

Bro. Crawford is mistaken. He was there when that vote was taken, as the published proceedings of the Grand Lodge will show, and the testimony of living witnesses confirm.

He says further:

An amendment to the Constitution had been offered by himself, declaring the right of the Order of Georgia, to regulate its social and domestic and local relations, without interference or dictation from any body outside of the State. This was unanimously adopted, and afterwards, through the influence of Mr. J. J. Hickman, R. W. G. C. was reconsidered and rejected. Milledgeville delegation then withdrew and returned home, resolved to officiate with the Temperance Order, whose Constitution left our social and local concerns at the mercy of a Federal Head, at the North or in Europe.

Mr. Bickman declared the R. W. G. committee had committed the negro question to him, and that he would allow each Southern Grand Lodge to regulate it. We, who withdrew, had "no confidence," and the late action of the R. W. Lodge in England has verified our suspicions. The principal of "State Rights" is a distinction feature in the new Order, the "United Friends of Temperance," which organized on the 2nd of January last, has absorbed nearly all the temperance orders South, and has grown to quadruple the size of any Order in the Southern States, counting out Kentucky. The "white basis" is its mudsill.

No man knows better than does Mr. Crawford that the Grand Lodge, at the Rome session last year declared unanimously that the Order in Georgia was "a white man's Order" and could be no other; that the R. W. Grand Lodge had left the vexed question of negro lodges to the jurisdictions of Grand Lodges in the South. His written declaration that the Milledgeville delegation, or lodge, was virtually "turned out" by the action of the Grand Lodge on the question of the perpetuity of the Pledge, is now in the hands of a gentleman in this city, as I am reliably informed. So much for the withdrawal of the "Milledgeville delegation."

Messrs Crawford, Searcy and M. J. Cook, on the part of the so called "United Friends of Temperance," came to Augusta and submitted to a Committee from the Grand Lodge of Good Templars, propositions of Union which that grand body could not accept without giving a death blow to the Temperance cause in the South. This rejection of his suit is the "pinching feliper" that produced this "squawk" from Brother C——, in which he makes such a wonderful stretch of the imagination in the closing paragraph of his article in the Chronicle and Sentinel.

It is not true, in any particular, that the "United Friends of Temperance," which was recently organized—last January, I believe—"has absorbed nearly all the temperance orders South, and has grown to quadruple the size of any order in the Southern States, counting out Kentucky." But it is true that the so-called "United Friends of Temperance" instead of seeking to reclaim drunkards and restore them to good society, have exerted all their energies to break down the order of Good Templars in this State by every means in their power. Secret circulars were circulated among subordinate lodges misrepresenting the status of the negro question in Georgia, appealing to the deep-seated prejudice of the people against the "phantom of social equality of the race."

They succeeded in inducing a few isolated subordinate Lodges to secede from the I. O. G. T., most of which soon crumbled to pieces and ceased to exist.

The Grand Lodge of Georgia Good Templars has met this vexed question fairly and decisively and called a convention of all the Southern Grand Lodges of the Order to deliberate on the situation, at the same time reiterating her former declaration that the I. O. G. T. of Georgia is a white man's order.

Very respectfully,
H. K SHACKLEFORD.

Clearing House Curiosities.

From the Chicago Tribune.]

The New York banks have adopted the plan of settling balances with Clearing-House certificates instead of greenbacks during the present flurry. To the general public, it may be well to explain what this action signifies. At a time like the present, everything which tends to economize the use of the currency pro tempore, is a relief to the money market. New York being the monetary centre of the country, the place where all other banks keep a greater or less balances, she must respond with currency when the banks of other cities call for their funds. But for all of her own purposes she may use anything which her own banks consider goods. All the banks meet once each day at the Clearing-house to exchange checks. The Park Banks, for instance, turns into the Clearing-house checks drawn on other banks of $500,000. The other banks perhaps turn checks on the Park Bank for $150,000. Usually this sum would be paid to the Clearing-house in greenbacks. In order, however, to economise the use of greenbacks, the Park Bank, its condition being shown to be perfectly solvent, passes in its own check for $50,000. Other banks against which there is a balance do the same. The clearing house then issues its certificates for an equal amount of the banks which have a balance coming to them from the day's clearings. The system is perfectly business-like and in accord with sound principles of finances, though it necessitates a frequent examination of the assets of the several debtor banks by the Clearing-house Committee.

☞ In the days when Louis Philippe was doing all he could to secure popularity, there used to be a story of a Parisian gamin who offered for a trifle to show the King to a party of traveling English, and to get him to sing the Marseillaise. The young citizen accomplished his purpose by bringing his party under the windows of the Tuileries and shouting "Vive le Roi," whereupon a little crowd soon assembled; the King came on the balcony to acknowledge the loyalty of his subjects; the gamin then struck up the Marseillaise, the crowd joined in, and finally the King himself intoned a verse.

☞ The number of post-office money orders issued during the fiscal year ending June 30th last, exceeded the number issued during the previous year by about 50,000. The amount of money orders issued and paid during the last fiscal year was $77,000,000, against $48,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1872.

☞ It is reported that the Pope has ordered his elegant villa at Castel Gandolfo to be repaired and fitted up for the reception of some nuns whom he intends to send there under his special protection as soon as the law suppressing the convents is enforced.

☞ For protecting the facing of shirts that drag on the ground, an inner facing is now used of dark oil-cloth or morocco bound with braid. It is more substantial than the plaited wiggan, which is so soon discolored and worn out.

ANOTHER ARTICLE OF COMMON HOUSEHOLD USE SUSPENDED.—Associated with the earlier recollections of a great many men and women is the memory of the Bath brick and emery stone wherewith the knives and forks, and pans and kettles, and other kitchen articles were at stated times "scoured up." That primitive mode prevails to-day in thousands of families who have never used Sapolio. But once let Sapolio be used for this purpose and that housewife never wants Bath brick or emery stone any more. Sapolio not only scours off all rust and tarnish, it brightens, bestows a polish as brilliant as new, and does it in one tenth the time required by any other substance. Sold everywhere. DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS.

THE ONLY KNOWN MEDICINE,

THAT AT THE SAME TIME

PURGES, PURIFIES AND STRENGTHENS THE SYSTEM.

Dr. Tutt's Pills are composed of many ingredients. Prominent among them are Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry, so united as to act together; the one, through its admixture with other substances, purifying and purging; while the other is strengthening the system. Thus these Pills are at the same time a tonic and a cathartic, a desideratum long sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words, they do the work of two medicines and do it much better than any two we know of, for they remove nothing from the system but impurities, so that while they purge they also strengthen and hence they cause no debility and are followed by no reaction.
Dr. Tutt's Pills have a wonderful influence on the blood. They not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all noxious particles from the chyle before it is converted into fluid, and thus makes impure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no debilitation, so there is no nausea or sickness attending the operation of this most excellent medicine, which never strains or tortures the digestive organs, but causes them to work as perfectly as nature intended; hence persons taking them do not become pale and emaciated, but on the contrary, while all impurities are being removed, the combined action of the Sarsaparilla and Wild Cherry purifies and invigorates the body, and a robust state of health is the result of their united action. Price 25 cents a box. Sold by all druggists. Depot 45 Courtland street, New York.
